Activity 2:

• Disney Who Am I:

- Have each family member write the name of a Disney character on a sticky note. Don't let others see what you have written down.
- Take your sticky note and put it on another family members back. Make sure each family member has a sticky note on their back.
- Now each family member must guess the character that is written on their back by asking yes or no questions only. Whoever guesses their character within the fewest number of questions wins!
- Remember that you are only allowed to ask yes or no questions. Such as: Am I human? Do I have hair? Do I have fur? Am I on a television series? Do I have multiple movies about me? Am I male? Am I female? Etc.
